GWEN STEFANI, 46

The voice adviser has a new love ... and new look to match! "It appears like she's recently had cheek and lip fillers," says Beverly Hills-based plastic surgeon Dr. Payman Simoni. Unfortunately, the injectables aren't creating the desired effect, he adds: "Both are aging her, which is the opposite of what was intended."

LADY GAGA, 29

Someone wasn't born this way! "Gaga's had fillers in her cheeks and Botox around her eyes, causing her brows to droop," NYC-based plastic surgeon Dr. Steve Faliek says of the Golden Globe-winning actress and singer, who has admitted to getting facial fillers in the past. "She looked better before!"

TOM CRUISE, 53

The new Mission: Impossible? Figuring out what happened to Tom Cruise's mug? Nashville, Tenn.-based plastic surgeon Dr. Nicholas Stevking says the actor — who's said he "hasn't and never would" go under the knife — could be carrying extra weight, but Dr. Faliek believes his chubbier cheeks are a telltale sign of fillers, saying, "He had too much injected."

KIM ZOLCIAK-BIERMANN, 37

"Where do I start?" sighs Dr. Stevking of the reality star, crediting a brow lift, chin implant and a "crooked nose job with a pinched tip" for her altered appearance. (The mom of six decries having her nose or lips done, but cops to Botox.) "Let's hope those lip fillers — and eyebrows — are temporary."

BETHENNY FRANKEL, 45

There's something different about Bethenny, and it's not just her red extensions. New Jersey-based plastic surgeon Dr. Lyle Back believes the Skinnygirl mogul got Botox to her outer jaw muscles to narrow her face as well as fillers in her jawline to "hide her pointy chin," and he adds a nose job and cheek fillers to the laundry list. "She's lost a significant degree of her facial identity."

ELLIE GOULDING, 29

Fans flipped when the singer hit the Grammys stage on Feb. 15 with fuller lips ("You pulled a Kylie!" accused one on Twitter). NYC-based plastic surgeon Dr. Matt Hew Schulman says she likely had "fillers in her cheeks and lips, and a nose job. She looks older than 29."
